Market Dynamics

The growing demand for nutraceuticals due to its medicinal properties is primarily driving the market growth. Advancements in nanotechnology imparting new functions to excipients are again accelerating the market growth. However, the cost of proving the effectiveness of an excipient through clinical trials is high, which is likely to hinder the market growth. Whereas, multi-functionality of excipients is expected to be an emerging trend, which is anticipated to stimulate demand over the forecast period.

The report covers Porter's Five Forces Model, Market Attractiveness Analysis and Value Chain analysis. These tools help to get a clear picture of the industry's structure and evaluate the competition attractiveness at a global level.

Additionally, these tools also give inclusive assessment of each application/product segment in the global market of nutraceutical excipients.
